

Immigration Transparency Rules

Our regulatory body, The Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA), requires all law firms to provide their clients/ potential clients with transparent pricing information in certain areas of law in which they practice. Some parts of our firm's Immigration practice are covered by this requirement.

The areas covered are as follows:

Applications for naturalisation or registration under the British Nationality Act 1981

Applications on behalf of European Economic Area (EEA) nationals and their family members under the applicable EEA Regulations or Immigration Rules, including applications for permanent residence, residence cards, and registration certificates

Applications under the Immigration Rules, including:

Student and work experience visas

Visit visas (for tourism, or visiting friends / family)

Spouse and partners applications, including fiancé(e)s or proposed civil partners

Applications for work, business or study under the Points-Based System;

dependent relative and family reunion applications

Ancestry visas

Other categories, such as applications on the basis of long residence

Other Applications

We are not required to publish prices for the following types of applications:

Asylum applications

Statelessness applications

Human rights / private life applications

Application for Secretary of State immigration bail

Reconsideration and legacy requests

Judicial review, such as claims for unlawful detention

Immigration services to businesses (e.g. applications for certificates of sponsorship or confirmation of acceptance for studies).

Please note that in virtually all instances, we are able to work with our clients on an agreed fee basis to prepare and submit their applications or to represent them at an appeal hearing in the First-tier Tribunal/Upper Tribunal. Over the years, we have discovered that majority of our clients prefer this.

What is covered by quoted fee

The quoted fee below covers the following:

considering your documents

attending to you

taking your instructions and providing advice

preparing and submitting the application

advising you on timelines and the outcome of your application

Kindly note that the fee quoted below do not include any disbursement such as interpreter's fee, independent expert reports (eg medical reports), NHS surcharge etc. Also, they do not include any application fees charged by the Home Office. All such fees are paid directly by the clients.

Refusal

In addition, in situations where the Home Office refuses an application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal are also not covered by the fee quoted below.

The current hourly rates of our solicitors and fee earners unless otherwise agreed, are as follows:

Solicitor Grade A: £240.00

Solicitor Grade B: £195.00

Other qualified Solicitors or Legal Executive: £165.00

Trainee Solicitors: £120.00

Others: By agreement

The figures below are estimates, price varies in cases with particular complexities, urgency, importance, implications and location of the matter at hand.

In the event that any unexpected complications arise that have an impact on our fees, we would immediately inform you.

Please note that as the government fees changes from time to time, we will advise you at the outset of all government fees relevant to your application and Immigration Health Surcharge where applicable

Residence documents for EEA Nationals and family members (Family Permit / Residence Card / Registration Certificate)

£1,200 – £1,500

Permanent residence documents for EEA Nationals & family members

£1,000 – £1500

Retained right of Residence

£1,000 – £1,500

Leave to enter the UK as a – Partner

£1,000 – £1,500

Leave to remain in the UK as a – Partner

£1,000 – £1500

Leave to enter the UK as a – Parent

£1,000 – £1,500

Leave to Remain as a – Parent

£1,000-£1500

Indefinite Leave To Remain as a– Partner

£1,000– £1500

Indefinite Leave To Remain as a– Parent

£1,000 -£1500

Leave to enter the UK as a– Child

£1000 – £1500

British Citizenship application

£600 – £800

British Registration application

£600 – £800

Business Visa – Sole Rep

£1,500 – £2,500

Visitor's Visa

£800 – £1000

All immigration work will be undertaken by Omotayo Aruna-Spitaler a qualified solicitor since 2005 and Rhoda Akinagbe, a Registered foreign Lawyer since 2011.